Apr. 05, 2006Dear Mr. Kim,

We duly confirm that our material of brass rod will comply ROHS, (Directive 2002/95/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 January 2003, on the restriction of the use of certain hazardous substances in electrical and electronic equipment), when order requires this stipulately on the Purchase Order.

Especially, we would like to draw your attention to the Annex of the Directive for the exempted content of Lead on Copper and Copper Alloy materials.

Besides, as this is additional quality requirement, there can be a price premium, which shall be furtherly discussed by the time of order.

Sincerely,B. W. Seo / Quality Manager*Typed by
